

DRAW YOUR OWN CHARACTER

Rick Riordan's The Red Pyramid is full of weird and wonderful gods, monsters and people. Why not use the space below to sketch what you think one or more of them might look like? You could choose Carter or Sadie Kane, the book's heroes. Or you might choose Set, the evil god of chaos, or one of the many other strange foes encountered by Carter and Sadie. If you're feeling really imaginative, you could make up your own mythical creature and give it a name of your own!
